TOURISM DEVELOPMENT STRATEGIES (M.A.)

I am Jana TDS Graduate

Today I work as a ...

Tourism Consultant
at Kohl > Partner in Stuttgart.

My focus is on destination consulting and concept development as well as destination coaching.

I decided to study at HOST because ...

I wanted to do a Master's in English and the modules were a great complement to my

TOURISM DEVELOPMENT STRATEGIES (M.A.)

Bachelor's in Geography, including a field trip, which was amazing. An added bonus for me was that it gave me the opportunity to live in my parents' house, which I had only lived in for a few years as a child as we moved around the world during my school years.

I especially liked ...

the fact that the majority of the courses always dealt with very specific topics and projects that were worked on together in this very familiar environment, but that there were also many opportunities for personal development through specific courses and opportunities at HOST.
