

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Student Communication Assistant (EUNICOast)

Duration: 5 to 6 months – Start date: End of 2025/January 2026

Location: University of Le Havre Normandy (Le Havre, France)

Working language: English (some French optional)

Eligibility: Open to students enrolled in one of the EUNICOast partner universities

About EUNICOast

EUNICOast is a European University Alliance bringing together 12 higher education institutions across Europe with the aim of strengthening cooperation in education, research, and innovation. The Alliance is committed to building a common academic and cultural space where students, staff, and researchers can collaborate, share knowledge, and create new opportunities at a European scale.

As part of this ambition, EUNICOast also invests in student life and communication, ensuring that students are not only informed about opportunities but also actively engaged in shaping the Alliance's identity.

Purpose of the internship

The selected intern will support the EUNICOast communication strategy with a strong focus on students, particularly through social media (Instagram as a priority) and student-focused events. The goal is to enhance the visibility of the Alliance among peers, strengthen student engagement, and bring forward fresh and creative ideas.

This position is best suited for someone passionate about community management, eager to connect with young audiences, and motivated to contribute creatively to both online and in-person student activities.

Main responsibilities

1. Social Media – Community Management and Content Creation

- Contribute to the editorial calendar and propose creative content ideas
- Create and schedule engaging posts on Instagram

- Cover student events (photos, short videos, interviews)
- Monitor performance and suggest improvements based on engagement metrics

2. Student-to-Student Communication & Events

- Organize or co-organize student-focused activities at Université Le Havre Normandie (games, info sessions, meet-ups...)
- Support online events targeting students across the Alliance
- Collect and share testimonials from students involved in EUNICOAST projects or mobilities
- Take part in awareness campaigns to promote the Alliance's opportunities

3. Occasional support

- Assist with communication logistics and campaigns
- Contribute to the EUNICOAST newsletter with student-oriented content

Candidate profile

- Currently enrolled in communication, marketing, or events management
- Strong knowledge of social media platforms, with a genuine interest in community management
- Good communication skills in English (written and spoken) (some French optional)
- Creative, dynamic, and motivated to propose new ideas
- Organised, reliable, and proactive
- Interest in student life, European cooperation, and teamwork

What we offer

- A role with meaningful responsibilities and room for creativity
- The opportunity to contribute to a European collaborative project
- A supportive, multicultural work environment at the University of Le Havre Normandy
- Monthly allowance in line with the French legal framework. This allowance may be combined with potential mobility grants (e.g. Erasmus+), depending on the student's situation
- Accommodation support

To apply, please send your CV and motivation letter to julien.corbet@eunicoast.eu

We look forward to receiving your application!